

ADVANCED

MODULE 1:	Topic: Globalisation Grammar: Continuous verb forms. Introducing points in an argument Vocabulary: Fixed expressions with world, earth, ground and floor . Varieties of English. Foreign words and phrases. Reading: The effects of globalisation. How the mobile change the world. Listening: Changing English in a changing world. Speaking: is globalisation good or bad?
MODULE 2:	Topic: Feelings. Grammar: Perfect verb forms. Cleft sentences. Vocabulary: Feelings. Idioms with laugh, cry and tears . Humour. Reading: What makes you laugh? New York to Detroit. Writing: A music review. Listening: An actor's first public performance Speaking: The secrets of happiness. How do you feel?
MODULE 3:	Topic: Behaviour. Grammar: Modals and related verbs. Abstract nouns and relative clauses. Vocabulary: Describing behaviour. Getting people to do things. Body talk. Reading: Perfect behaviour in an imperfect world. Rules and regulations. Writing: Emails. Listening: Improving your communication skills. Speaking: Cultural dos and taboos.
MODULE 4:	Topic: Health Grammar: Adjectives and adverbs . Comparatives and Superlatives. Vocabulary: Health and well-being. Idioms to do with the body. Brain and mind. Reading: Complementary therapies. Changing bodies. Writing: A leaflet. A short news article. Listening: shelf-help books. Speaking: body and spirit.

MODULE 5:	Topic: Education. Grammar: Use and non-use of passive forms Particles which add meanings to verbs. Vocabulary: Education. Way . Reading: Education: fact or myth? Let's ditch exams. Writing: Writing tips from notes. Expanding notes. Listening: What life skill should you learn at school? Speaking: Brain power.
MODULE 6:	Topic: Money. Grammar: Time and tense. Inversion . Vocabulary: Words and phrases relating to money. Just. One and a half. Reading: TV quiz show. Welcome to the world. Writing: Summarising statistical information. Listening: The case of Stella Liebeck. Speaking: Winning the lottery.
MODULE 7:	Topic: People and relationships. Grammar: Infinitives and -ing forms. Describing typical habits. Compound adjectives. Vocabulary: Characteristics. Just . Relationships. Reading: The Bluffer's Guide to Men and Women. Men and women. Writing: A report. Listening: Leaving home. Speaking: Who you live with?
MODULE 8:	Topic: Fashion. Grammar: Adverbs. Adding emphasis with auxiliaries Vocabulary: Descriptive adjectives. Comment adverbials. Clothes and fashion. Reading: Style icons. What clothes say about you. Writing: A tactful letter. Listening: You're so vain. Speaking: A question of taste.

MODULE 9:

Topic: Work
Grammar: Future forms. Describing trends.
Vocabulary: Work, lifestyle and health. Well.
Computer terms. Right and Wrong.
Reading: What didn't come to pass?
Body language.
Writing: An article.
Listening: The changing face of tourism
Speaking: Work and play in the 21st century.

MODULE 10:

Topic: Truth and lies.
Grammar: Noun phrases. Ellipsis and substitution
Patterns with as...as + verb.
Vocabulary: Work and play. Expressing surprise and disbelief.
Reading: How do you know when someone is lying?
The 21st century office.
Writing: A news article
Listening: The Unicorn in the Garden.
Speaking: It is ever OK to lie?